

JIM YOCOM (LAST UPDATED 7/21/2020)

EDUCATION	PHD, MS UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN—MADISON (2007) Exams: Sociology of Law, Crime & Deviance; Social Psychology, w. distinction
	JD LEWIS & CLARK LAW SCHOOL (2010) Class Standing: Top 25% Admitted in Oregon, Washington State, U.S.D.C. of Oregon (currently inactive)
	BS, BA UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON—SEATTLE (1995) B.A. Sociology (w. honors); B.S. Psychology

RECENT EMPLOYMENT HISTORY	SENIOR LECTURER, NC STATE UNIVERSITY DEP'T OF SOCIOLOGY 2017– Teaching, academic advising, data analysis & visualization, mentoring; undergraduate honors thesis supervision; administrative tasks
	PRIVATE LEGAL PRACTICE, PORTLAND 2013–2017 Nonprofit and small business law, advised on socially responsive business models, some criminal defense, immigration, bankruptcy work

TEACHING EXPERIENCE AND AWARDS	SOCIOLOGY AND CRIMINAL JUSTICE 2017– Senior Lecturer. Sociology of Law; Sociology of Medicine; Quantitative Data Analysis; Survey Design; Social Psychology 2003–2006 Lecturer. Criminal Justice in America; Criminology; Social Psychology; Sociological Research Methods; Introductory Statistics for Sociologists 1998–2001 Teaching Assistant.
	SMALL BUSINESS, LEGAL, AND LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT 2016 Presenter. Instructional videos on business law for the Oregon State Bar Panelist. Public panel on tax-exempt organizations creation and maintenance 2013–2017 Lecturer. Quarterly lectures for Micro Enterprise Services of Oregon (nonprofit business incubator) on business law topics 2016 Lecturer. Three-lecture series on the social psychology of small groups and small group leadership, for Oregon Women Lawyers 2015 Lecturer. Public speaking, OR Continuing Legal Education credit
	CERTIFICATIONS 2020 Inclusive Teaching Certification (NCSU OFD) 2018 Accessibility in the Classroom (NCSU OFD)

HONORS AND AWARDS

2002	Departmental Award for Excellence in Teaching
2001	University of Wisconsin Teaching Fellowship
1999	French-Felton Award for Excellence in Teaching
1997	Vilas Fellowship

RESEARCH

2020

- “Punitive Attitudes in International Context.” Manuscript submitted to the Journal of Quantitative Criminology
- “Revisiting Big Business Litigation in U.S. Federal Courts.” Research in progress
- “Social Determinants of Student-Health-Services Use at a Large, Public University.” Project underway with Dr. Julie Casani.
- “Tribal Litigation in U.S. Federal Courts, 1970–2019.” Research in progress

2010

Tort reform and medical costs in Oregon: Methods and statistical advising / analysis for Oregon Trial Lawyers Association

Dissertation: Categories, categorization effects, and the institutionalization of punitive attitudes. Mark Suchman, Chair

2007

- Commission on Reducing Racial Disparities in the Wisconsin Justice System 2008 State Report, contributing researcher.

2001–2004

- Race Disparities in Imprisonment: Research design and analysis w. Dr. Pamela Oliver, UW Sociology, UW Institute for Research on Poverty

2000, 2003

- Design and analysis consultant for UW Law School Resource Center on Impaired Driving (2003) and Dr. Bernard Trujillo, UW Law School (2000)

MS Thesis: The demoralizing effects of new laws. Mark Suchman, Chair UW-Madison

SERVICE AND PROJECTS

RECENT

- Oversight committee: NCSU's High-Performance Computers (HPC) (since FA 2019)
- Software Development: Developing graphical interface for teaching social network analysis (with Steve McDonald)
- Research collaboration on proposal to study nonprofit organizations (with Rich Clerkin and others in the School of Public Administration)
- Several community-based committees

PRE-2017

- Board of Directors, Oregon Women Lawyers
- Board of Directors, Lighthouse Legal Services
- President & Chair of Board, St. Andrews Condominium Association
- Leadership Committee, Oregon Women Lawyers
- Membership Committee, Oregon Women Lawyers
- Intersectionality Committee, Oregon Women Lawyers
- Member, Oregon Gay and Lesbian Association of Oregon
- Drafted Booknotes for Law & Social Inquiry

OTHER PROJECTS & MISCELLANEOUS

- Introvert Leadership
- Above the ADA: Employment and Disability Through an Inclusive Lens
- Sexism in Performance Evaluations: Research and Best Practices
- Diversity & Inclusion Professionalism Ethics Programming
- Lewis and Clark Law Review (editor 2010)
- Best Oral Advocate, Moot Court Competition