

Aneika Bullock (Dickens)

NC State University, SPIA, Public Administration aedicken@ncsu.edu

Research Interests

Mixed-Methods Analysis
Program & Performance Management
Networks in Public Administration

Education

North Carolina State University, Raleigh, NC August 2020-Present
Ph.D. Student, Public Administration Quantitative
Analysis on Social Program Efficiency North
Carolina State University, Raleigh, NC MPA, May 2017
Public Administration

University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, NC May 2014
BA, Public Policy
Minor, History
Additional Course work: Microeconomics, Family Economics, Industrial Economics

Professional Experience

NC Community Colleges Systems Office January 2024 - Present
Research Specialist

Wake Technical Community College February 2022-Present
Adjunct Professor, Continuous Learning, Power BI

School of Public and International Affairs, NC State University 2020-Present
Research Assistant

Center for Community and Family Engagement, NC State University November 2020-May 2022
Research and Evaluation Graduate Assistant

Opioid Paraprofessional Workforce Expansion Program Health Resources and Services Administration, US Department of Health and Human Services
(T97HP33390) -$898,762 (Cryer-Coupet, PI) November 2017-July 2020

Wilson County DSS August 2016-October 2017
Data Analyst

Administrative Office of the Courts September 2015-July 2016
Research Specialist

Industry Expansion Solutions, NC State University
Grants Intern

Conference Presentations:

Public Management Research Conference (PMRC): "Parsing the Transaction Costs of Public, Nonprofit, and Hybrid Production" (2021) Coupet, J., Dickens, A. , Broussard, P.

American Society for Public Administration (ASPA): "RDT and Community Policing: Strategy for Equitable Stability" (2022) Dickens, A.

Association for Public Policy Analysis and Management (APPAM): " Do Social Service Vouchers Encourage Program Exit through Power Transfer?" (2022) Dickens.A

Publications:

Coupet, J., & Dickens, A. (2024). Is there a public innovation gap? evidence from technology transfer. The Journal of Technology Transfer, <https://doi.org/10.1007/s10961-024-10096-4>